HOME AND SCHOOL COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Teacher E-Mail Addresses: All teachers at this school have been issued e-mail addresses.

Online Homework Information: A portion of the school's website is devoted to homework pages.

The following narrative about how this school promotes and supports parental involvement was submitted by the school.

Conard High School is committed to providing every child a quality education and authentic experiences within a safe, community environment. Conard's partnerships with parents, community businesses and local agencies are valued and considered to be essential in preparing our youth to succeed in a changing global marketplace. Parent involvement is encouraged through a myriad of activities and events. Conard maintains an active PTO of over 300 members who are engaged and enrich the school climate through activities such as: College Parent's Panel, the Senior "Safe Grad" Party, and the Brick Walkway. PTO and community members also serve as volunteer tutors, speakers, theater production assistants and hospitality coordinators. Our local Community of Concern (CoC) chapter of parents, faculty, students, and community work together to promote healthy lifestyles for our youth. Conard High School offers multiple channels for two-way home/school communication. Each month, a 'Principal's Coffee' is held during morning and bi-monthly evening times to offer opportunities for parents and the principal to engage in conversations related to school initiatives and school improvement. An outreach information session at the Hillcrest Avenue Neighborhood Outreach Center (HANOC), a New Student Orientation and an evening Open House are some events held each year. These forums, along with several school events scheduled throughout the year allow new and returning students and parents to learn more about Conard's programs and activities. Conard recognizes the need for varied levels of family communication and support. Printed, electronic and automated modes are also used to provide parents with multiple ways to stay informed about important events and to receive helpful information on a variety of topics. Chiefly Conard, a bi-monthly newsletter available to all families, highlights upcoming school events and special department features. In addition, Conard's website provides links to all faculty e-mails, voicemail extensions, department websites, and contains a master calendar of events. As part of a staff development on 'Stand Up for Student Achievement' in the past year, Conard's faculty engaged in various activities designed to personalize the educational experience of each child that walks through the doors of Conard High School. Each year, all parents are invited to a fall parent-teacher conference to discuss their child's progress. Parents of students identified as at-risk for academic failure are personally contacted to arrange a meeting with teachers to discuss and develop a collaborative plan to ensure the student's academic success.

EFFORTS TO REDUCE RACIAL, ETHNIC, AND ECONOMIC ISOLATION

Below is the description submitted by this school of how it provides educational opportunities for its students to interact with students and teachers from diverse racial, ethnic, and economic backgrounds.

At Conard High School, where “Diversity is our strength,” is a dynamic spectrum of racial, religious, socioeconomic, cultural and ethnic backgrounds make up the student and faculty bodies. Conard offers a high-quality curriculum that provides students with a rigorous and well-rounded experience. Studies in US and African-American Experience, Hispanic Studies, Issue-Centered English, Chinese World Language, Ethnic and Regional Cuisines and Gospel Choir are just a few offerings that provide a multicultural perspective of our global world. Students can even immerse themselves in the culture of Spain through the Summer Exchange Program in Madrid. Conard believes that the high school experience should maximize the strengths and potential of all students. Pre-AP English and pre-calculus courses offered at Conard seek to help more students recognize their potential, and to support an increased percentage of minority students that subsequently enroll in AP courses. Conard’s philosophy of inclusive education allows students with special needs to learn and interact with non-disabled peers across general education settings, and cultivates appreciation of diverse learning styles and skills. Conard is also enriched by its participation in Project Choice, an inter-district program that provides integrated educational opportunities. Over 40 athletic, extra-curricular/co-curricular programs exist at Conard. Clubs and activities such as Circle of Friends, Gay & Straight Alliance, Empty Bowls, a Multicultural Dinner and Show, and ‘Human Rights Day’ are open to all students, and intended to foster well-rounded and productive citizens with an awareness of human diversity. Students and staff collaborate to plan the annual Diversity Assembly with the concept that all mankind has merit and should be treated with dignity and respect. Unified Theater and Unified Sports are two programs that unite students and showcase their individual strengths and creativity. Conard’s partnership with the West Hartford Initiative on Racial and Ethnic Diversity (WHIREd) promotes dialogue and interactions surrounding race relations.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT PLANS AND ACTIVITIES

The following narratives was submitted by this school.

Conard High School recognizes that the professional development of teachers, administrators, and support staff is essential to student achievement and school improvement. Aligned with the District Improvement Plan, Conard's three-year goal to increase student achievement and decrease the minority achievement gap has included integrated, monitored and tracked Connecticut Achievement Performance Test (CAPT)-style assessments throughout the ninth and tenth grade curriculum. Conard provides support programs to students who do not demonstrate mastery on the CAPT, and helps to prepare them for retakes and subsequent coursework. Performance Assessment Support Seminars (PASS) and Science Investigational Skills (SIS) are courses offered to seniors in an effort to help them to fulfill the WHPS performance standards necessary for graduation. Conard also utilizes community volunteers to serve as tutors for our students. Conard's Student Success Team (SST) is designed to identify underperforming students, personalize the educational experience for those students, and to address over-identification of students placed in special education programs. The SST is comprised of multidisciplinary staff including representation and consultation with community support agencies. In the past year, the SST aligned itself with the Scientific Research -Based Intervention (SRBI) model. Individual Student Success Plans are developed to address significant academic and behavioral concerns. 'The Blitz' was implemented this past year as a school-wide early detection intervention to support struggling learners and involve parents in the educational process. Conard also embodies a welcoming spirit throughout the building. A weekly homeroom is scheduled and helps to build student and teacher connections. An EMPOWER course taught by the principal and assistant principals is designed to facilitate a successful transition of freshman students to the high school and to expose them to various ways that they can effectively be a part of the fabric of their school. Conard teachers engage in staff development and Professional Learning and Collaborative Experiences (PLACE) that focus on goal setting, data teams, assessment and activities that promote a positive school climate.

SUPPLEMENTAL SCHOOL INFORMATION

The space below was optionally used by this school to describe aspects of the school not presented elsewhere in the profile.

Conard continues to maintain an outstanding reputation. As recognized in Newsweek magazine, Conard is rated in the top 1% of American high schools for the number of Advanced Placement (AP) and college credit courses offered, exams taken, as well as its efforts to prepare students for the AP exams. Ninety-seven percent of students who were enrolled in AP courses took a total of 991 AP exams. By arrangement with the University of Connecticut, students may earn college credit through the UConn Early College Experience while enrolled in AP courses. College/Career Pathways Programs are offered in various career cluster areas for juniors and seniors who wish to pursue course work directly related to a career field. Conard's partnership with the Community College System provides the added benefit of up to 14 college credits for select courses. Conard High School is proud to be recognized locally and nationally for its accomplishments. During the spring, Conard's innovative programs such as Study with a Buddy, STARR Study Hall and Advisory Homeroom activities were recognized and spotlighted at the High School Redesign in Action NESSC regional conference. WFSB News Channel 3 also recognized Conard High School as its first "Cool School" of the year. Live and recorded segments gave the community at-large an inside look at high-impact programs offered at Conard. Viewers were also able to witness the positive school climate and exuberant school spirit of the students and staff. Conard's band and vocal students were among thousands of teenagers that participated in the 42nd Annual Berklee Jazz Festival, billed as the largest competitive jazz festival for high school students on the east coast. Conard's Concert Jazz Band placed 2nd in their ensemble class with the Vocal Ensemble receiving honorable mention and Outstanding Musicianship recognition in piano and percussion.
